Online seminar for start-ups in the field of creative industries (English)

Are you a fashion designer, musician, artist, architect, game developer or writer, sitting at your worktable daydreaming about starting your own creative business? Are you looking for access to Berlin markets? Especially in Berlin the creative sector is an essential element of economic progress, employment and trade with ongoing increasing growth rates.

Please attend our business start-up seminar with our business consultant to receive the basic information for being a successful entrepreneur in Berlin. This seminar is primarily for those who are new to starting a business. The topics range from your preparedness to go into business, legal requirements, and other basic functions in operating a business.

The registration fee for this one-day seminar is EUR 10,- This includes a ticket for the biggest founder fair in Germany Deutsche Gründer- und Unternehmertage – deGUT 2020
